Know the West

High Country News is a nonprofit independent organization whose mission is to inform and inspire readers to act on behalf of the American West’s human and natural communities.

HCN leads the nation in our coverage of the land, water and wildlife, and of conservation and climate change, in the Western United States. Our journalists also provide unique, insightful coverage of the West’s diverse people and communities, from Indigenous people to immigrants, and from small towns to cities and suburbs. We seek stories with broad regional relevance that touch on the intersections of human lives and the natural world. We elevate the voices of the disempowered and hold those in power to account. We endeavor to strip away myth and stereotype to reveal the realities of the Western U.S., and to illuminate the possibilities of a more just and sustainable future.
50 Years of Independent Journalism

“For anyone who cares about the West, loves its contradictions and its beauty, loves its moods and politics, for anyone who frets about its future and puzzles over its past, High Country News is indispensable.” — author and New York Times reporter Timothy Egan

“I like to think of High Country News as the New Yorker for people who live above 7,000 feet. Their thorough coverage of Western issues and strong writing and reporting ought to be winning awards.”
— Environmental Health News

“The single most common suggestion from readers falls into the broad category of regional news: High Country News. The publication covers land use, climate, wildfires and many other issues. I started reading this week and will become a regular.”
— David Leonhardt in his New York Times column What to Read Now

I Am the West

Our audience is comprised of more than 750,000 policymakers, educators, public land managers, environmental professionals, outdoor enthusiasts and others who care deeply about the future of our land, air, water, wildlife and people.

Help your students unravel the complex issues facing the American West with this important, FREE resource.

PARTICIPANTS OF THIS PROGRAM RECEIVE:

• Free access to HCN’s entire website, including breaking news and insights on how COVID-19 is affecting the West.

• Fifty years of online archives.

• An email sent to you, the instructor, on the first of each month with a link to a PDF version of our print magazine for sharing and planning purposes (12 issues a year).

• Access to our librarian for curated stories on specific topics.

To sign-up for the HCNU Classroom Program visit: www.hcn.org/edu

For more information contact HCNU@hcn.org.

“My students looked forward to every issue of High Country News. The articles served as the basis for in-class discussions. Students also described how they began to debate the issues covered in HCN around the dinner table with their families. The solid reporting was an invaluable addition to my course.”

— Chad Hanson, PhD; Chair, Department of Social & Cultural Studies, Casper College

Advertising & Sponsorship Policy

Advertising Philosophy
Our mission is to cover the important issues and stories that define the American West. High Country News strives to inform and inspire people to act on behalf of the West’s diverse natural and human communities. We accept advertising because it helps pay the costs of publishing a high-quality, full-color magazine where topics are well-researched and reported in an in-depth manner. We believe advertising is a service to our readers, and we seek advertisements from progressive companies, organizations and individuals that share our commitment and values, and that provide goods and services beneficial to our readership. Editorial content will always be the dominant feature of the magazine; ads will take up no more than one third of the magazine on average. High Country News encourages advertisers to subscribe to the publication by offering them a 10 percent subscriber’s discount on advertising rates.

Special Guidelines
High Country News does not accept ads for the following products: hard alcohol, illegal drugs or paraphernalia for illegal drugs, sexual escort services, tobacco or check-cashing services.

Publisher’s Approval
All contents of advertisements are subject to publisher’s approval. Publisher reserves the right to reject or cancel any advertisement, insertion order, space reservation or position commitment at any time without cause. Publisher reserves the right to insert the word “advertisement” above or below any copy.

Cancellation Policy
Cancellation of any insertion order will require advertiser to pay the published standard rates for any ads already run, regardless of quoted price in the insertion order. In addition, advertiser will pay a 10 percent penalty on the remaining ads being canceled. Full payment will be charged for all contracts canceled after the space reservation/copy deadline. Please note, classified ads are nonrefundable. Choose your run dates accordingly.

Sponsorship Policy
As a 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization, High Country News (HCN) gratefully accepts tax-deductible corporate sponsorship to support its mission. HCN will not solicit or accept sponsorship from corporate entities whose practices, policies, or operations are deemed unacceptable and contrary to the values implicit in its mission.

HCN actively solicits and encourages the business community, service clubs, and other organizations to become sponsors of HCN events, programs, and services. HCN enters into sponsorship agreements with sponsors it deems appropriate. Sponsorship agreements may vary by sponsor. HCN reserves the right to refuse or decline any offer of sponsorship at its absolute discretion or to negotiate with the sponsor concerning any aspect of a proposed sponsorship.

A sponsorship is defined as a mutually beneficial exchange arranged in advance whereby:

- HCN obtains support for a specified activity.
- Sponsor receives acknowledgement in return for cash and/or products and services-in-kind to HCN.

Special Guidelines:
- HCN does not accept corporate sponsorship for certain categories of products and services, including hard alcohol, illegal drugs or paraphernalia for illegal drugs, sexual escort services, tobacco or check-cashing services.
- HCN does not endorse, directly or by implication, any products, services, or ideas promoted except those sponsored directly by the organization.
- HCN must retain control over any sponsored program and sponsors should not have any input into operational matters relating to a project they have sponsored. This policy is not applicable to philanthropic contributions, grants, or unsolicited donations in which no benefits are granted to the sponsor and where no business relationship exists.
1. High Country News ("Publisher") will not be bound by any condition appearing on order blanks or copy instructions submitted by the Advertiser when such condition conflicts with any provision contained in Publisher's rate card or with its policies, regardless of whether or not set forth in the rate card. All references herein to Advertiser include Advertiser’s agency, if there is one, and Advertiser and its agency shall be jointly and severally liable for Advertiser’s obligations hereunder. 2. Publisher reserves the right to decline or reject any advertisement for any reason at any time without liability even though previously acknowledged or accepted. If an advertisement is accepted for publication, the advertiser agrees that it will not make any promotional references to High Country News without the prior written permission of the Publisher. 3. Short Rates. Advertisers will be short-rated if the space upon which billings have been based is not used within the 12-month contract period. 4. Agency commission: 15% to recognized agencies. Bills are rendered on publication date. Payment in U.S. currency required. Interest will be charged at rate of 1.5% per month or, if less, the maximum lawful interest rate, on past-due invoices. New Advertisers must either remit payment with order or furnish satisfactory credit references, subject to Publisher's discretion. 5. The Publisher agrees to pay the amount of invoices rendered by Publisher within the time specified on the invoice. 6. Orders 30 days beyond current closing date will be accepted only at rates prevailing and only on a space-available basis (subject to the other terms and conditions herein). Orders containing incorrect rates may be accepted and, if accepted, charged at regular rates. Such errors will be regarded as only clerical. 7. All agencies or direct advertisers must supply Publisher with a legal street address and not just a post office address. 8. Orders specifying positions other than those known as designated positions are accepted only on a request basis, subject to the right of Publisher to determine actual positions. 9. Advertisements in other than standard sizes are subject to Publisher's approval. 10. Rates, conditions and space units are subject to change without notice. Any discounts are applicable during the period in which they are earned. Any and all rebates from earned discount adjustments must be taken by the advertiser within six (6) months following the period in which such rebates were earned or they will be deemed expired. 11. Schedule of months of insertion and size of space must accompany all orders and are binding upon advertiser upon receipt unless terminated in writing prior to the applicable closing date(s). Publisher online "space reservation forms" for special issues are considered by Publisher as orders and binding in all ways. 12. Reproduction quality is the responsibility of the Advertiser. Publisher's specifications are met or if material is received after closing date even if on extension. All queries concerning printed reproduction must be submitted to Publisher within 45 days of issue date. 13. No rebate will be allowed for insertion of wrong key numbers. 14. The Advertiser agrees that in the event Publisher commits any act, error, or omission in the acceptance, publication, and/or distribution of their advertisement for which Publisher may be held legally responsible, Publisher’s liability will in no event exceed the cost of the space ordered and further agrees that Publisher will not under any circumstance be responsible for consequential damages, including lost income and/or profits. 15. The Advertiser represents that it not only has the right to authorize the publication of any advertisement it has submitted to Publisher, but that it is fully authorized and licensed to use (i) the names and/or the portraits or pictures of persons, living or dead, or of things; (ii) any trademarks, service marks, copyrighted, proprietary or otherwise private material; and (iii) any testimonials contained in any advertisement submitted by or on behalf of the Advertiser and published by Publisher, and that such advertisement is neither libelous, an invasion of privacy, infringing of any third party’s rights or otherwise unlawful. As part of the consideration and to induce Publisher to publish such advertisement, the Advertiser agrees to indemnify and save harmless Publisher against all loss, liability, damage, and expense of whatsoever nature ("Losses") arising out of copying, printing or publishing of such advertisement ("Claims"). In the event that any advertising campaign for Advertiser includes sweepstakes, contests, email distribution and/or other promotional elements which are managed either by the Advertiser or by the Publisher on behalf of the Advertiser, the Advertiser also agrees to indemnify and save harmless Publisher against any and all losses arising out of the publication, use or distribution of any materials, products (including prizes) or services related to all such promotional elements provided by the Advertiser including, without limitation, those arising from any claims. 16. The Advertiser agrees to and does indemnify and save harmless Publisher from all loss, damage, and liability growing out of the failure of any sweepstakes or contest inserted by them for publication to be in compliance and conformity with any and all laws, orders, ordinances, and statutes of the United States, or any of the states or subdivisions thereof. 17. All orders accepted are subject to acts of God, fires, strikes, accidents or other occurrences beyond Publisher’s control (whether like or unlike any of those enumerated herein) that prevent Publisher from partially or completely producing, publishing or distributing High Country News. 18. All advertisements must be clearly identified by the trademark or signature of the Advertiser. 19. Words such as “advertisement” will be placed with copy that, in Publisher’s opinion, resembles editorial matter. 20. Cancellations must be in writing. Cancellations for orders are not binding on Publisher unless in writing and received at least 45 days prior to the advertising closing date for inside or outside cover pages and for all inside pages, prior to the advertising closing date. Thereafter, orders may not be canceled or changed by the advertiser without the acknowledgement and acceptance of Publisher. If orders are not timely canceled, the Advertiser agrees that it will be responsible for the cost of such canceled advertisements. 21. The Advertiser agrees to reimburse Publisher for its attorneys’ costs and fees in collecting any unpaid billings for advertisements. 22. The parties agree that the details contained on orders will be treated as confidential or proprietary information and shall not be disclosed to third parties. 23. All issues related to advertising will be governed by the laws of the State of Colorado applicable to contracts to be performed entirely therein. Any action brought by Advertiser against Publisher relating to advertising must be brought in the state or federal courts in Denver, Colorado, and the parties hereby consent to the jurisdiction of such courts. Terms and Conditions
